Utah Code Ann. § 53A-3-402

Utah Code Ann. § 53A-1-10010

All potential kindergarten students will be given an in depth readiness test by a team of teachers and administrators prior to the beginning of school. The purpose of this test is to determine the child's readiness for the activities involved in the school setting.

Parents will be counseled concerning the results of the test for their child. If the child meets the age requirement, but does not demonstrate readiness as measured by the test, the parent may choose whether or not to enter the child at that time.

Special exceptions may be made by the Board for under age pupils, including those who transfer from first grade and kindergarten programs of other school district, upon the recommendation of the school psychologist.
