

North Summit School District collects directory data, which consists of student and parent names, addresses, phone numbers, grades, attendance and only information approved by the state. The above data is housed in the Powerschool system that is password protected with restricted login access. If a parent or student wants more information about the collection of the data, please contact your school regarding your options.